BEFORE AND AFTER PROGRAM – GUIDANCE

SeneGence® cosmetics and skin care are filled with benefits. In particular, many of our skin care systems have been clinically studied and proven to provide various benefits to the feel and appearance of your skin. We are excited to launch a Before and After Program (“Program”) for Distributors to document these benefits.

Depending on the skin care product chosen, you will obtain instructions on how long to use the product to obtain maximum results, pursuant to the clinical study associated with the product. Before beginning use of the skin care product, the first part of the process will be to take a “before” photo to document your baseline. After the prescribed amount of time, depending on the product chosen to use, you will then take an “after” photo and share the improved appearance of your skin using the SeneGence skin care regimen chosen for your skin.

Checklist for creating your Before and After Post:

___ Take your “before” photos before beginning the SeneGence chosen skin care product in accordance with the guidelines herein.

___ Start your skin care regimen of choice in accordance with instructions provided for that product and pursuant to these guidelines.

___ Take photos at the indicated timeframes the clinical timeline provides for said product chosen as provided in the instructions pursuant to the skin care product chosen and per these guidelines.

___ Once the indicated timeframe for said product chosen is complete, take your “after” photos in the same manner, timing, lighting, angle and as provided in the guidelines herein.

___ Use only the approved format, claims, and disclaimer provided to you by SeneGence in posting your photos.

___ Organize your “before” photo, “after” photo, disclaimer, and chosen approved claims for your post as provided herein and then post. Distributor may not make any changes to the content, placement or font size of the disclaimer.

Before and After Post Requirements:

- The Distributor must identify herself or himself as an Independent Distributor of SeneGence and whether she is the subject of the photo.
- If the subject of the photo is not the Distributor, SeneGence suggests that you obtained written permission from the subject for its intended use. (SeneGence cannot and does not provide the distributor with legal advice and we provide the referenced RELEASE AND GRANT OF RIGHTS as a sample only, while also suggesting that you consult with your own attorney on the matter.) See sample Release and Grant of Rights Form (below).
- The photograph should be taken by the Distributor. If taken by someone else SeneGence suggests that you obtain written permission from the person who took the photograph. (SeneGence cannot and does not provide the distributor with legal advice and we provide the referenced COPYRIGHT ASSIGNMENT as a sample only, while also suggesting that you consult with your own attorney on the matter.) (See sample Copyright Assignment below).
- Any written description or information shared must represent the Distributors honest opinions, accurate results and findings, beliefs and experiences from using SeneGence products.
- All photos must be digital, and originals must be saved and provided to SeneGence upon request. SeneGence shall have the right to ask for originals / digital files, in order to assess its validity as well as the meta data on the original photo(s) to confirm that no alterations have been made to the photo(s).

- Photos must be in focus, in a portrait format and with a well-lit, plain background.
- All “before” and the “after” photos must be taken in the same setting and conditions. Including the same lighting conditions. Preferably with good natural light.
- Touch-ups and photo editing, including filters and subsequent digital editing (i.e. photoshop, filters) are not permitted.
- The photos, and any statement attendant thereto, must be supported by and consistent with SeneGence label and product claims.
- The photos must be in good taste, which shall be solely within the discretion of SeneGence to evaluate.
- Any written description or information shared, concerning the effect or results of you use of the product must be only those approved by SeneGence for that specific product. See below for approved claims under the respective product page. You may include some or all of the approved claims – but may not claim any other effect derived from its use.
- Absolutely no comments or claims of improvement of a medical or health condition may be made about the product or results of its use.
- Only the products on the products list may be used for the “before” and “after” photos.
- If the product is not included in the SeneGence approved list of available Before and After Products, located in the distributor back office, no “before” and “after” photos are allowed for that item.
- No other products, other than the SeneGence product which is the subject of the “before” and “after” photos, may be used during the before-to-after test period, on the area of the subject’s body represented in the photos.
- If participating in a skin care regimen, you should not expose yourself to: excessive or direct sun exposure; tanning beds or tanning alternatives (i.e. tanning products); and/or initiating any new cosmetic or personal care products, including aesthetic enhancements meaning the alteration of visual appearance, visual form or visual shape during the Program period.
- The time period between the “before” and “after” photos must be featured on the post.
- SeneGence shall have the right to audit posts to ensure photos adhere to this guidance.
- Should SeneGence determine (in its sole and unfettered discretion) that your photos or post are unacceptable, and so inform you, you shall immediately remove the post for all internet platforms and locations.
- You may post to all major social media channels. On post, distributor may not make any changes to the content, placement or font size of the disclaimer.

Sample Forms:

SeneGence cannot and does not provide the distributor with legal advice and we provide the documents referenced below as samples only, while also suggesting that you consult with your own attorney on the matter.

Capturing Before & After Photos – General Do's and Don'ts Guidance

Do:

- Start with a bare face and hair slicked back.
- Ensure your entire face is visible and centered within the photo.
- Pose with a relaxed, neutral face.
- Use controlled lighting. It's important that you are able to recreate the same lighting months later for your after photo!
- Use a plain background.
- Use the highest quality camera setting on your device.
- If shooting with a phone, use your rear-facing camera.
- Take multiple pictures of each angle. (forward/front, left, right).
- Consistency - take all photos in the same place, using the same background, camera settings, lighting, time of day, angle and distance from camera.

Don't:

- Wear makeup
- Retouch your photos or use filters of any kind
- Use too dark or too bright lighting
- Take photos out of focus
- Shoot from different angles than your before photos

BEFORE taking your after photos, review your before photos and do your best to recreate the setting, lighting, and angles!
